

STATE PARK CELEBRATES FLORIDA ARCHEOLOGY MONTH WITH NATIVE AMERICAN PROGRAM

- Expert guide will lead hands-on Native American program -

ST. AUGUSTINE - The Florida Department of Environmental Protection's Faver Dykes State Park will host a Native American program in recognition of Florida Archeology Month on Saturday, March 20, 2010.

Participants will enjoy a unique, hands-on Native America experience and discover the life ways of the Timucuan Indians and their relationship to the land that they loved, explore with an expert guide and enjoy stories about the Timucuans and the important role the river, forest and ocean played in their everyday lives and see a 1500s Timucuan Camp to experience the food, clothing and shelter of these amazing people first hand. Visitors will also have the opportunity to try throwing an atlatl or starting a fire using a bow and drill.

The program will be held at the Faver Dykes State Park picnic area. The program will be included in the regular park entrance fee of $5.00 per vehicle. For more information, contact Mark Giblin at 386-446-6783, or email Mark.Giblin@dep.state.fl.us. For more information on Florida's state parks, visit www.floridastateparks.org.

This event will take place:

2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Saturday, March 20, 2010
Faver Dykes State Park
1000 Faver Dykes Road
St. Augustine, Florida